

What is the problem? This is supposed to be America, you know, freedom of choice?? XM Radio is a choice which we pay for. If it weren't such a superior product, we wouldn't be paying for it in the first place. Stop bullying XM Radio and start channeling your efforts into more important issues!